

HEAVY LOSS OF VALUABLES.

An Athens 11 Baltimore losses Twenty-five Thousand Dollars in the Street.

James S. Hamilton, a resident of Athens, Ga., who is present stopping at Barnum's Hotel, Baltimore, was a loser this afternoon of about $25,000 worth of bonds and other securities. The doctor left the hotel about 1 o'clock, having the bonds, etc., which were inclosed in an envelope and then wrapped up in a newspaper, under his coat, which was buttoned up, his pocket being too small to receive the envelope. He walked directly down Calvert street to German on his way to John Merryman & Co.'s office, No. 24 Second street. After proceeding along German street about one hundred feet he discovered the loss of the package. Seeing that the thoroughfare was crowded with pedestrians, he thought it useless to turn back and look for them, and went directly to the office on Second street and reported his loss. The bankers and brokers were immediately notified, as also the police, but as yet no clue has been obtained. $15,000 of the bonds are negotiable anywhere.

The package contained five Georgia State 8 per cent. bonds of $1,000 each, seven Georgia 7 per cent. bonds of $1,000 each, and one $5,000 bond, five Princeton factory, of Athens, Ga., bonds of $1,000 each; ten shares of Augusta Factory stock, and 110 shares of Graniteville Factory stock. The number of the bonds are given in a card published elsewhere, and the police are at this time negotiating them. Mr. Hamilton is a liberal reward for the return of the valuables.

THE VALUABLES RECOVERED.

A package containing $40,000 worth of bonds and securities lost yesterday afternoon by Dr. James S. Hamilton, of Athens, Ga., on Calvert street near German, as noticed in yesterday's issue of the Day, was safely returned to the doctor this morning by John W. Sleeger, a messenger boy. He found the package on Calvert street, and on taking it home discovered its valuable contents. He subsequently saw the advertisement in the Day and promptly returned the package to the owner. The doctor was, of course, highly pleased at getting back his valuables and rewarded the lad with a $100 note. The lad's parents are very poor and reside at No. 276 North Front street.

Pleased Waiters
Yesterday the waiters of the Kimball house, over thirty in number, waited on Mr. Scoville and asked if their wages could be raised from fifteen to eighteen dollars a month, to which Mr. Scoville assented, and as a consequence the waiters are loud in his praises and compliment him in the most decided terms.

The Station House.
Yesterday was a dull day with the police. Up to midnight not a single state case had been made and only a few arrests were reported for violations of city ordinances. The rainy day had a depressing effect on the criminals.

Couldn't Stand Whistling.
DAVENPORT, Iowa, October 19.—A musical crank by the name of William Fisher made a murderous assault to day on Henry Schuck, a farmer of Rock Island county. Fisher became uncontrollable whenever he hears whistling, and the farmer, enjoying himself in that way, was made use of as a target. The ball of Fisher's revolver grazed Schuck's face. The assailant was held for trial in $300 bonds for assault to murder. Up to the time of their meeting in the road the men were strangers, and the shooting was done without further provocation than the whistling.

A Wife-Murderer Convicted.
VERMONT, Miss., October 19.—The trial of Tarkos for the murder of his wife, which began yesterday, was concluded in the criminal court here to-day. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. When Tarkos's crime was first committed, it was believed to have been done by negroes and it was so reported.

An Ex-Congressman Dead.
BALTIMORE, October 19.—Judge Edward Hammond died at his residence in Howard county this afternoon, aged 70 years. He was a member of congress (house of representatives) from 1849 to 1853, and at the time of his death was associate justice of the fifth judicial circuit of this state.

Bereaved Brownsville.
BROWNSVILLE, October 19.—There has been one death from yellow fever at ranch Pritts, a short distance from town. A cold northerly set in last night, and still continues. At Camargo and Meir there is no change for the better.

An Alabama Strike Ended.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., October 19.—The Birmingham rolling mill, which shut down on July first, will resume operations to-morrow, a conference having been held to-day and the men agreeing to resume on last year's scale.

Liable for Nearly Half a Million.
Special Dispatch to the Constitution.
BOSTON, October 19.—In regard to failure of Royal O. Storrs & Co., well-known wool manufacturing firm of East Dedham, Massachusetts, it is learned that their liabilities are $475,000 dollars.

ROCKWELL'S
PAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the adulterated low-cost, short-weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. Wholesale by E. J. BARNETT, Atlanta, Ga.

Business Manager Wanted.
A good business man, with some capital, is wanted to take charge of the Post-Office as business manager. It is the best investment now offered in the state. Mr. M. F. Barnett, who has been managing both the editorial and the business departments, finds that he cannot attend to the duties both positions, and as his forte is on the editorial side of the paper, a business man who will make himself interested in the journal can find it to his advantage by applying at the office or addressing
Post-Office, Atlanta, Ga.

"BESTY" MR. ARTHUR.

San Francisco, October 13.—T. Canisius, newly-appointed Consul to Samoa, has written to a friend in this city announcing his arrival at Apia, where he was formally received by the king on August 24. The king hearing that Consul Dawson was to be succeeded by another, wrote the following letter to President Arthur:

CAPITAL OF SAMOA, July 13, 1885.
—To His Majesty the President of the United States: Your Majesty, I make this letter humbly in presence of your Majesty, by which I express my will to continue the office of consular representative. Mr. Dawson, I have heard of that matter with the greatest anxiety in my heart, because he secured peace in Samoa. The German, an English, and a naval captain failed to do this. Mr. Dawson also knows how to converse and write in the Samoan language. I thank your Majesty because the consular representative, Mr. Dawson, came here to Samoa, and I am glad that he should remain in my kingdom. May your Majesty be prospered by the Almighty. I am

MALIELOA, the King of Samoa.
No matter what your Majesty is, Brown Iron Bitters will surely benefit you.

We assert without fear of contradiction that Bessie's Sallow Aperient is cheaper and more pleasant than any pill ever made. It is so mild, so pleasant, so prompt in its action, that it never produces the least unpleasant feeling, and its action more prompt than any pill made. It is a terrible enemy to the pill family, driving them from every direction. It is so mild, pleasant, so prompt in its action, whether on steamboats, railroads, hotels, or at home, that all ladies are delighted.

CITY NEWS.

THE REGULAR RECORD OF CURRENT LOCAL EVENTS.

The Day's Doing in Public Places—The Record of the Courts, the Railroads and Hotels—Capital Jottings—Real Estate Operations—Improvements—Gossip of All Kinds.

Ten pins are popular. The hotels are all well filled. The first "fall rain" fell yesterday. Loafers have left the city hall park. Cigarette smoking is on the decline in Atlanta.

The Knoxville murder is the sensation of the day. There is talk of getting up a Fulton county fox hunt. Housekeepers complain of the high prices of butter and eggs.

A great deal of cotton comes to town in country wagons at night. Holders of Tennessee Marital Associations are beginning to feel shaky.

Governor Stephens and his rolling chair are pictured in Puck this week. A kicking horse attracted a crowd on Whitehall street yesterday afternoon.

The trotting match on the Boulevard was postponed on account of the weather. Officer White's wounds are weakening him greatly, and his recovery is doubtful.

A number of persons left town yesterday to go to Eastman to see the hanging. The face of the city clock once more marks the time, and shines brighter and clearer than ever.

The soda water clerks at the drug stores have less to do now than they did a week or so ago. A Central railroad engine ran into a passenger coach yesterday morning, and damaged it severely.

The idea of a club house is favorably received and there will be as many applicants as are likely to be accommodated.

The weather is hard on the rural hunters who supply the city markets with game. There is very little game in market.

Save money by purchasing music at five cents a sheet instead of paying extortionate rates. For sale by Holman, Coffin & Co.

The trade of Atlanta is extending throughout the southern states. W. J. Wood yesterday shipped a baby carriage to Dandridge, Tennessee.

We have a line of business suits ranging from ten dollars upwards that is unsurpassed. Eisenman Bros., 35 Whitehall street.

It is said that the Stone Mountain granite company refuses to take another contract for furnishing blocks at the same price as the Alabama pavement.

All a mistake about twenty car loads of bananas being in the city. The market is about bare, but Hamilton, Hudson, 21 Alabama street, will receive a car of choice bananas about the first of the week.

Our boys' clothing has given such universal satisfaction both to parents and the boys that our sales in that department have been doubled within the last twelve months. Eisenman Bros., 35 Whitehall street.

We call special attention to the card of Messrs. J. C. Watkins and E. C. Allen, who have formed a partnership in the produce and commission business at 93 Broad street. These gentlemen are well known and among our best business men.

Persons of moderate means, who are now renting, can, by taking stock in the new Building and Loan association, now forming at Hendrix & McBurney's office, 31 South Broad street, become owners of their own homes for the rent they now pay, in five years time.

A. D. Adair, secretary, Atlanta, Ga., has already received about fifty letters of the temperance petition lately circulated among the ministers of Georgia, petitioning the legislature to enact laws for the suppression of drinking saloons in Georgia. Those having these petitions are urged by the committee to have the same filled at once and mailed to the secretary in order that they may all be presented at one time to the legislature.

GOSSIP ABOUT TOWN.

Sam Venable has a pet bear that he keeps at the elevator.

Mr. Scoville of the Kimball now owns or leases seven hotels.

Governor Brown has closed the contract for building a five mile road in Bartow county. It is intended to develop a new iron ore bank.

Burglars entered Mr. Julius Brown's bedroom night before last and stole about $6. They took a book containing railroad passes, but dropped it in the yard.

Recorder's Court.

Sixty-five dollars and fifty cents was the amount levied by Recorder Glenn on the men who insisted on big drunk and disorderly the night before.

Society Matters.

News relating to marriages, parties, balls, dinners, engagements, club meetings, personal, etc., etc., respectively solicited for Sunday's issue of the Constitution. All such matter must be sent or handed to the "Society Editor" by Friday, 12 o'clock, a. m.

Fulton Superior Court.

Yesterday, before Judge George Hillier, in Fulton superior court, was heard the case of Mrs. J. A. Davis vs. Morris & Bro., partition of land. The jury was out when court adjourned, and was requested to bring in a sealed verdict, which will be rendered to-day.

Woodson Wilson was admitted to the bar.

Cheap Groceries.

Having bought on the most favorable terms at assignees' sale the entire stock of groceries of the firm of Jordan & Cranston, we are prepared to supply our customers at low figures with choice staple and fancy groceries. The only proof needed is a trial. Send in your orders and you will be convinced.

Engine Injured.

While an East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad train was backing on the main track between the railroad shops and yard very early yesterday morning, collided with an engine coming from the shops at the bridge on Thurmond street crossing. The smokestack and pilot of the engine were considerably damaged, and the cab attached to the train badly wrecked. No one was hurt.

City Court.

Yesterday in the city court before Judge Clark were tried the following cases: State vs. Granville Clayton, larceny from the house, plea of guilty, sentence $70 or six months in the chain gang. State vs. Henry Holmes, simple larceny, acquitted. State vs. Sarah Lewis, larceny from the house, two cases, nolle prosequi entered in each on payment of costs.

Death of Mrs. L. J. Garrett.

Yesterday morning Mrs. L. J. Garrett, 71, died at her home in this city, on Decatur street, surrounded by her family. She had been an invalid for a long time, and her death was not unexpected. Mrs. Garrett was a consistent member of the church, a devoted wife, an affectionate mother and a true friend. The influence of her nature with its tender emotions, and kindly sympathies, will remain like the perfume of flowers when their leaves are withered, a sweet smelling savor in the memory of those who appreciated their worth.

Blocked Sidewalks.

Much is said about the sidewalks being blocked on Alabama street, and it seems innocent people have been blamed for it. We were down that way yesterday, and while considerable inconvenience is offered to pedestrians, yet we do not see how it can be avoided. The fact is, there has been recently a failure, and the large stock having been bought at low figures by J. W. Goldsmith & Co., at assignee's sale, they were compelled to drag it to their house on Alabama street, and at the same time were shipping out on orders almost as many more goods.

Salsbury Troubadours.

The above popular fun makers will appear at DeGree's opera house, to-night, in Bronson Howard's three act musical novelty entitled "Green Room Fun," the rendition of which affords a most laughable evening's entertainment. This play in the hands of the Troubadours is being received by crowded houses all over the country. The general favorites, Nellie McHenry and Nat Salsbury, appear at their best in the amusing scenes and extravagant situations of the play. The "Church Choir Ballet" is a performance of itself, with its great fun and its pretty music. To all who desire to see one of the funniest and nearest performances of its kind now on the boards, we will say, be sure and go to the opera house to-night.

Free Exhibition This Evening.

Professor Abt will give a series of illuminated stereoscopic views, this evening at the corner of Broad and Marietta streets. The exhibition will commence at about 8 o'clock unless prevented by rain, in which event the exhibition will take place on the first pleasant evening afterward. Views of distinguished personages, dead and living, prominent places, notable events, etc., will be presented in a most artistic manner, and many of the rare animals and scenes in Forepaugh's for the coming circus will also be exhibited. Good order will be maintained, and as it will be a "free show" the professor will doubtless be greeted with a rousing audience.

United States District Court.

Judge McCoy in the United States district court heard the following cases yesterday: Atlanta national bank vs. Isiah Dalton. Judgment of $100 principal and $15 interest for plaintiff.

Morgan Bates was found guilty of illicit working in a distillery and sentenced to one month's imprisonment.

Willis Brantley, charged with illicit retailing, was found not guilty.

Robert Crages was charged with running an unregistered distillery, and found guilty. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and to suffer one month's imprisonment. The court adjourned pending the trial of the case of Aaron Woody charged with resisting an officer.

Supreme Court of Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., October 19, 1882.

List of citizens showing the cases remaining undispensed of:

MAON CIRCUIT.

No. 7. Argument concluded.

No. 8. Central Railroad vs. Flournoy, trustee. Complaint, from Houston. Argued, W. S. Wallace & Son, for plaintiff in error. Winslow & Branham, Davis & Riley; Dunham & Miller, for defendant.

Court adjourned until 10 a. m. to-morrow.

A memorial of the life and character of John M. Giles, deceased, was presented by Mr. B. M. Davis, chairman of the committee appointed for that purpose.

On to-morrow Nos 9 and 11 Macon will be argued, Judge Tompkins presiding in place of justices disqualified.

A SERIOUS QUESTION.

Raised by Illegal Voters Who Had Not Paid Their Taxes.

One of the most serious questions that will be presented to the people of Georgia is that involved in illegal voting. The law distinctively says that no one shall vote without having paid all taxes due up to the year previous to the election. A distinct penalty is provided for the violation of this law.

The law is broken at every election in every county in the state. There is now in the hands of the grand jury of this county a list of over 1,300 citizens who voted at the late election in violation of law. On this list are some men of the highest respectability. Judge Hillier insisted in his charge on this point, that the grand jury had no discretion in the matter, but that under their oaths they were obliged to indict every man whose name was furnished them. The judge never made a more vehement charge than on this point.

What will the grand jury do if it presents all these men, it will raise some very pretty issues. If it does not present them, the law might as well be repealed. In one of the counties of Judge Brown's circuit a large list of men were convicted of illegal voting, in that they voted without having paid their taxes. After considering the case carefully he dismissed each man with a small fine and the costs, the costs amounting to about $15. We understand that the law is very definite on this subject and a prominent lawyer says he could try the 1,300 cases by "bunching" them, thus saving a great deal of trouble to the man that had voted illegally. We are not advised as to what the grand jury will do although Judge Hillier's charge may have fixed that. The same question is up in a Fulton superior court, was heard the case of Mrs. J. A. Davis vs. Morris & Bro., partition of land. The jury was out when court adjourned, and was requested to bring in a sealed verdict, which will be rendered to-day.

Woodson Wilson was admitted to the bar.
